AMSTERDAM, SEPTEMBER 11-14, 2017

Theater de Meervaart
www.semantics.cc
The annual SEMANTiCS conference is the meeting place for all stakeholders of the Semantic Web technologies. Every year this event attracts the world’s leading Semantic Web practitioners and researchers, uniting thus research, industry and public administration. Top-of-the-line presentations from around the world will enable you to delve into state-of-the-art developments with regard to the future of the Web.

Besides the highly diversified event program, this year the conference will feature:

- Prestigious Keynote Speakers
- The 3rd European Linked Data Contest
- A broad spectrum of satellite events (e.g. DBpedia Day, Workshops, Poster Sessions).
- A unique marketplace with free access for participants and visitors

Venue

SEMANTiCS 2017 is hosted by the Free University Amsterdam (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam). The SEMANTiCS conference will take place at the Meervaart Theatre in Amsterdam (https://2017.semantics.cc/venue), which is just a bit outside of Amsterdam’s city center. Being the capital city of the Netherlands, Amsterdam is very well connected to all international airports via the Schiphol Airport.

Sponsorship at SEMANTiCS2017

SEMANTiCS is the only European industry-focused conference on semantic technologies and solutions. The event presents the key opportunity to increase the visibility of your company, organisation or project among an international, high impact community and beyond. Seize this opportunity and meet data and information managers, IT-architects, project developers, software engineers and researchers from organisations ranging from NPOs, universities, public administrations and SMEs to the largest enterprises in the world.

Your advantages as a Sponsor of SEMANTiCS2017 in Amsterdam:

- Great visibility at European level in the context of a high quality event
- Perfect opportunity to meet with key decision makers and stakeholders, including high profile academics
- Prominent logo placements across our online and offline channels
- Attractive exhibition area and marketplace events
- Marketplace open for non-visitors of the conference
- Ideal environment to reach and expand your target group
- Free entrance for visitors to the SEMANTiCS marketplace
- Full access to all conference events
- Central location of venue

For your convenience, we offer a number of attractive Sponsoring Packages, as well as Customized Packages.

Sponsor the European Linked Data Award

The European Linked Data Contest (ELDC) awards prizes to stories, products, projects or persons presenting novel and innovative projects, products and industry implementations involving linked data. This two-step contest consists of a nomination per country, followed by a pan-European selection. Ambassadors from over 15 European countries, acting as country representatives, form an international jury and elect the winner of this contest. The ELDC is awarded in the categories Linked Enterprise Data and Linked Open Data, with €1,500,- for each of the winners. (More information can be found here.)

By becoming the Sponsor of the ELDC Award you will achieve high visibility during the conference as well as in all related press and online dissemination activities. For more information, please contact us via email.
